NOTICE OF ELECTION

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEES VOTING BY U.S. MAIL

PURPOSE OF ELECTION: This election is to determine the representative, if any, desired by the eligible employees for purposes of collective bargaining with their employer. (See VOTING UNIT in this Notice of Election for description of eligible employees.) A majority of the valid ballots cast will determine the results of the election. Only one valid representation election may be held in a 12-month period.

SECRET BALLOT: The election will be by secret ballot carried out through the U.S. mail under the supervision of the Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). A sample of the official ballot are shown on Panel 3 and 5 of this Notice. Voters will be allowed to vote without interference, restraint, or coercion. Employees eligible to vote will receive in the mail Instructions to Employees Voting by United States Mail, a ballot, a blue envelope, and a yellow self-addressed envelope needing no postage.

ELIGIBILITY RULES: Employees eligible to vote are those described under the VOTING UNIT on Panels 2 through 5 and include employees who did not work during the designated payroll period because they were ill or on vacation or temporarily laid off. Employees who have quit or been discharged for cause since the designated payroll period and who have not been rehired or reinstated prior to the date of this election are not eligible to vote.

CHALLENGE OF VOTERS: An agent of the Board or an authorized observer may question the eligibility of a voter. Such challenge must be made at the time the ballots are counted.

AUTHORIZED OBSERVERS: Each party may designate an equal number of observers, this number to be determined by the NLRB. These observers (a) act as checkers at the counting of ballots; (b) assist in identifying voters; (c) challenge voters and ballots; and (d) otherwise assist the NLRB.

ELECTION DETAILS: The election will be conducted by United States mail. The mail ballots will be mailed to employees employed in the appropriate voting unit by the office of the National Labor Relations Board, Region 29, on December 7, 2020. Voters must return their mail ballots so that they will be received by the National Labor Relations Board, Region 29, by close of business on December 30, 2020. Voters must sign the outside of the envelope in which the ballot is returned. Any ballot received in an envelope that is not signed will be automatically void.

Any employee who believes that he/she is eligible to vote but did not receive a ballot or who otherwise requires a duplicate mail ballot kit should communicate immediately with the National Labor Relations Board by either calling the Board Agent assigned to the case, Rachel Zweighaft, at 718-765-6166 or by sending an email at rachel.zweighaft@nlrb.gov no later than December 15, 2020.

Due to the extraordinary circumstances of COVID-19 and the directions of state and local authorities including but not limited to Shelter in Place orders, travel restrictions, social distancing and limits on the size of gatherings of individuals, the ballot count will take place on a date and in a manner to be determined by the Regional Director.

All ballots will be commingled and counted on a date and time to be determined by the Regional Director. In order to be valid and counted, the returned ballots must be received by the Region 29 Office prior to the counting of the ballots.

The Region will provide notice to the parties of the scheduled date for the ballot count at least 24 hours prior to the count. The count will take place virtually on a platform such as Skype, WebEx, etc., to be determined by the Regional Director. Each party will be allowed to have one observer attend the virtual ballot count.

VOTING UNIT

EMPLOYEES ELIGIBLE TO VOTE: All full-time, regular part-time, and per diem physician assistants employed by the Employer at its facility located at 506 Sixth Street in Brooklyn, New York employed by the Employer during the payroll period ending immediately before November 21, 2020.

EMPLOYEES NOT ELIGIBLE TO VOTE: All chief physician assistants, senior physician assistants, all other employees, managers, confidential employees, guards, and supervisors as defined by section 2(11) of the Act.

If a majority of the valid ballots in the election is cast for the Petitioner, the employees will be deemed to have indicated their desire to be included in the existing professional bargaining unit currently represented by the Petitioner at New York-Presbyterian Brooklyn Methodist Hospital, and it shall bargain for those employees as part of that unit. If a majority of the valid ballots is cast against representation, the employees will be deemed to have indicated their desire to remain unrepresented, and a certification of results of election will issue to that effect.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES

Under the National Labor Relations Act, employees have the right:

- To self-organization
- To form, join, or assist labor organizations
- To bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing
- To act together for the purposes of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection
- To refuse to do any or all of these things unless the union and employer, in a state where such agreements are permitted, enter into a lawful union-security agreement requiring employees to pay periodic dues and initiation fees. Nonmembers who inform the union that they object to the use of their payments for non representational purposes may be required to pay only their share of the union's costs of representational activities (such as collective bargaining, contract administration, and grievance adjustment).

It is the responsibility of the National Labor Relations Board to protect employees in the exercise of these rights.

The Board wants all eligible voters to be fully informed about their rights under Federal law and wants both employers and unions to know what is expected of them when it holds an election.

If agents of either unions or employers interfere with your right to a free, fair, and honest election, the election can be set aside by the Board. Where appropriate, the Board provides other remedies, such as reinstatement for employees fired for exercising their rights, including backpay from the party responsible for their discharge.

The following are examples of conduct that interfere with the rights of employees and may result in the setting aside of the election:

- Threatening loss of jobs or benefits by an employer or a union
- Promising or granting promotions, pay raises, or other benefits to influence an employee's vote by a party capable of carrying out such promises
- An employer firing employees to discourage or encourage union activity or a union causing them to be fired to encourage union activity
- Incitement by either an employer or a union of racial or religious prejudice by inflammatory appeals
- Threatening physical force or violence to employees by a union or an employer to influence their votes.

The National Labor Relations Board protects your right to a free choice

Improper conduct will not be permitted. All parties are expected to cooperate fully with this Agency in maintaining basic principles of a fair election as required by law. The National Labor Relations Board as an agency of the United States Government does not endorse any choice in the election.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEES VOTING BY U.S. MAIL

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES - FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU THE RIGHT TO:

- Form, join, or assist a union
- Choose representatives to bargain with your employer on your behalf
- Act together with other employees for your benefit and protection
- Choose not to engage in any of these protected activities
- In a State where such agreements are permitted, the Union and Employer may enter into a lawful union-security agreement requiring employees to pay periodic dues and initiation fees. Nonmembers who inform the Union that they object to the use of their payments for nonrepresentational purposes may be required to pay only their share of the Union's costs of representational activities (such as collective bargaining, contract administration, and grievance adjustment).

- Promising or granting promotions, pay raises, or other benefits, to influence an employee's vote by a party capable of carrying out such promises
- An Employer firing employees to discourage or encourage union activity or a Union causing them to be fired to encourage union activity
- Making campaign speeches to assembled groups of employees on company time where attendance is mandatory, within the 24-hour period before the mail ballots are dispatched
- Incitement by either an Employer or a Union of racial or religious prejudice by inflammatory appeals
- Threatening physical force or violence to employees by a Union or an Employer to influence their votes

The National Labor Relations Board protects your right to a free choice.
